THE LOS ANGELES PIANO QUARTET

Founded in 1977 with the express encouragement of Neville Marriner, the Quartet made its debut at the Los Angeles Music Center in Los Angeles to enthusiastic critical acclaim. Since that time they have been rapidly gaining recognition as "a major force in the American chamber music scene."

The 1983-84 season saw the Quartet's New York debut at Alice Tully Hall, Lincoln Center, as well as tours throughout the United States. During the 1984-85 season the Quartet was chosen as "Quartet in Residence" for the State of Hawaii. Other performances scheduled included a tour of the Midwest, Pacific Northwest, and East Coast, as well as appearances at the Carmel Bach Festival, the Mozart Festival and the Bermuda Festival. The Los Angeles Piano Quartet has recorded the Brahms G Minor Piano Quartet, for Klavier Records.

Individually, the members of the Los Angeles Piano Quartet have impressive credentials as solo performers and teachers.

Pianist JAMES BONN has appeared with numerous orchestras and under the batons of such conductors as Dorati, Fiedler and Dennis Russell Davies. In addition to his performing career, Mr. Bonn is Professor of Music at the University of Southern California.

Violinist JOSEPH GENUALDI joined the Quartet after several years as first violinist of the Muir String Quartet. A frequent participant at the Marlboro Festival, Mr. Genualdi has also served as assistant concertmaster of the San Francisco Symphony. In addition to his activities with the Piano Quartet, Mr. Genualdi will also assume a teaching position at California State University at Northridge.

Violist RONALD COPES is a distinguished violinist as well, and he has been heard with Music from Marlboro and on Columbia Records. Mr. Copes is Associate Professor at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Cellist PETER REJTO winner of the International Young Concert Artists Award, has appeared with many orchestras including the Dallas and St. Louis Symphonies, and in recital at the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the 92nd Street Y in New York City. Mr. Rejto is Professor at California State University at Northridge.

L A T E C O M E R S

In consideration of the performers and our audience, we have adopted the following policy which will be strictly enforced at all future concerts: There will be NO seating while a performance is in progress.

Welcome, Young People--

Parents are encouraged to bring their school-age children to our FRIENDS OF CHAMBER MUSIC concerts. We do ask that children under ten years of age not sit in the first five rows of the theater, and that all children sit with their parents. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
